

JULY 14, 2019

NOW THAT'S A GOOD STORY!

WELCOME TO SOUTHEAST

Welcome to Southeast Christian Church. We are a church full of people who are either growing in our faith or are just beginning to ask questions about God. Our desire is to start, grow, and love together as a community of imperfect people.

If you have a prayer request or any questions about Southeast, you can fill out the card in the seatback, request info on the Southeast app, or talk to someone at a Guest Services desk.

GET CONNECTED

God created us for community. If you are interested in joining a serving team, participating in a small group, or getting information about an upcoming event, please go to the Connections Studio located just inside the main entrance. This resource is available to you on Sunday mornings before, during, and after the services. You may also send an email to connect@southeastcc.org, so the Connections Team can help you find your place at Southeast.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Visit the website or stop by the Connections Studio in the lobby for more information.

Weekly Support Groups
southeastcc.org/support-groups

July 17 | Youth: City Youth Group
southeastcc.org/students

July 20 | Men: Monthly Breakfast
southeastcc.org/men

August 2 | 4th & 5th Grade: FOB
southeastcc.org/family

August 8-9 | Global Leadership Summit (GLS)
southeastcc.org/gls2019

August 11 | Elementary Kids: Baptism Class
southeastcc.org/family

August 16-18 | Women: Be Still, So That..Retreat
southeastcc.org/women

August 28 | Worship: Choir Newbie Night
southeastcc.org/worship

September 8 | Infants: Baby Dedicaton Class
southeastcc.org/family

November 3-11 | Missions Trip: Romania
southeastcc.org/missions

NOTES: THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Luke 10:25-37 English Standard Version (ESV)
And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” He said to him, “What is written in the Law? How do you read it?” And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.” And he said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live.”

But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, ‘Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.’ Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?” He said, “The one who showed him mercy.” And Jesus said to him, “You go, and do likewise.”

The Yoke of the Rabbis:
Hillel vs. Shammai

- IMPLICATIONS
1. There is a real tension in our relationship with God. When does supporting people become a compromise to our faith? Jesus is trying to help us navigate this tension well.
 2. God doesn’t play favorites. Stop worrying about who deserves to be treated well and treat everyone the way God would want you to.
 3. Jesus clearly teaches that the best way for us to show God how important He is to us is how we treat others.
 4. Question: In your life, do you look more like Hillel or Shammai? What can you learn from those who stand on the other side?